Ying Tian is an associate of TKQP Law LLP in the insurance department. With her background in civil and commercial litigation, she leverages on theoretical knowledge and insights she has gained to navigate the insurance domain.

At TKQP Law LLP, she assists the Senior Partner and Partner in contentious cases across all levels of the State Courts and Supreme Courts on matters involving fatal accidents and personal injury matters.

Prior to joining TKQP Law LLP, she handled a wide range of civil and commercial litigation matters such as contractual, shareholder, company, joint-venture, employment and tenancy disputes as well as defamation claims. Some of these matters she had assisted in which are worth noting include disputes involving a listed company and various digital news media outlets.

In addition to litigation, Ying Tian also assisted in corporate advisory matters such as drafting, negotiating and reviewing of agreements for companies and registered societies, and also on non-contentious matters such as probate and administration and estate law.

Her professional journey includes valuable training experiences during her pupilage where she assisted in a varied workload such as drafting and reviewing of corporate agreements for, inter alia, prominent players in the automotive industry, claims in respect of defaulted mortgage loans for financial institutions, and other areas of dispute resolution.

Notable experience in insurance

- Being part of a team representing the insurers of the estate of a deceased in a High Court suit involving allegations of negligent driving arising from a red-light violation
- Providing advisory support in relation to a personal injury claim arising from a fatal road traffic accident, and of which contributed to its resolution prior to commencement of any proceedings
