Experience

- Acting for the liquidators in relation to the investigations and potential action (including claims of audit negligence) against the former auditors and officers of Hyflux Ltd, a well-known water treatment company in respect of a public-private service concession.
- Acting for a joint venture company in a shareholder dispute between Chinese shareholders and Indonesian shareholders concerning the development and operation of a state-linked infrastructure project.
- Acting for Russian shareholders and their affiliates in a cross-border shareholder dispute involving a conspiracy and breaches of various agreements. The dispute spans across several jurisdictions, including Russia, China, Singapore and the British Virgin Islands.
- Acting for a widow and eldest daughter in a dispute against the deceased's three other children relating to the beneficial ownership of funds in joint accounts which, until the deceased's passing, were jointly held by the deceased, his widow and eldest daughter. The matter involved novel issues of law on whether banking terms providing for the beneficial interests of the account holders should be regarded as conclusive.
- Representing the Law Society of Singapore in the prosecution of a disciplinary matter before a Disciplinary Tribunal and the Court of Three Supreme Court Judges.
- Advising the committee of inspection of a shipping and logistics company.
- Providing an expert opinion to a Florida Court to aid in the enforcement of a Singapore judgment.
