Kit's practice focuses on complex and high-value corporate restructuring and special situations. She brings extensive experience advising debtors, institutional creditors, ad hoc creditor groups, and funds across multi-jurisdictional capital structures. A secondment with the restructuring and reorganisation team at the New York office of an international US firm has also sharpened her expertise in managing complex high-stakes international transactions. Her transactional restructuring expertise is complemented by a broad corporate and commercial practice spanning M&A, strategic investments, and fundraising. She has advised high-growth start-ups and established corporations alike on cross-border deals, corporate governance, and commercial matters.
